So comfortably, I can't fall asleep.
Knowing that you're next to me.
And all of my dreams remind me of heaven
And everything I own, I've imbedded in this love.
So patiently, I waited for you to come from my dreams.
So beautiful and true.
The moment I saw you, I knew you were different.
And everything you own, you've imbedded in this love.

And all of me, I give to you.
So take my hand.
And we can dance, the night away.
This is the meaning of love.

You're next to me, that's all that I need.
With one touch, you comfort me,
You're all of my dreams, tell me this is heaven.
Everything we own, we've imbedded in this love.

And all of me, I give to you.
So take my hand.
And we can dance, the night away.
This is the meaning of love.

And as the years go by I know our love will never change,
I'll be there.
And as we grow old I know our love will be the same,
Will be the same.

And all of me, I give to you.
So take my hand.
And we can dance, the night away.
This is the meaning of love.
