Expendable human beings easily reproduced take who you will and have your fill implementations to choose

Hanging, drowning watch as they fight for air burning, boiling alive separation of flesh from bone fearful societies accepting the ways of the cross trust in our god, or be branded with irons the lord is on our side

Temples, destroyed
The ways of old forever lost Torture, conversion by force fall to your knees, and pray

Crimes against Humanity disregard for human life
Crimes against Humanity
there's no wrong nor right
Crimes against Humanity
there's no way we'll be stopped we're above the law

Inquisition tactics approved mutilate til there's nothing left no one is exempt women, children, the devil has their soul strappado, gravity attack Tendons snap as bones start to crack Iron maiden, Claws of death make your confession, breathe your last breath

Trial by cruel ordeals if you live through the test we will set you free collapse from agony, the evidence we need to prove you're a witch Impalement, lacerations no chance for survival, the end's drawing near Anguish, exhaustion time has come burn her at the stake

there's no wrong nor right
we're above the law
