Stalking the Alley
There`s no chance to fight Blood of the innocent Satan"s delight You`re screaming for mercy begging for life, as I rip through your skin there`s blood on my knife.
You pray to your god, he`s no where in sight just shadows of demons
standing in the light.
Your body is lifeless now you must rest, blood of a virgin girl the devil `s request.

No escape
Decimate
No escape
The devil waits

Nothing by accident life has a plan.
Watching your everymove your life in my hand.
You were so beautiful you had to die, instructed by satan angel of light.
The fall of lucifer he shall be avenged.
Death of god`s creation, your blood will make amends.
once I am through I`ll watch your body fall, inverted pentagram the devil`s mark drawn on your wall.

No escape
Decimate
no escape
The devil waits
