Where you going at 5 a.m.?
The streets, they look kinda dangerous
Who do you call when you've lost your friends?
It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances

It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances
It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances

The landlord is coming for your rent
And the loans are collecting up on your desk
When every dime you've saved is spent
It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances

It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances
It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances

Empty stomach, empty pockets
With empty cupboards and empty sockets
With empty secrets and empty's nothing
It'd be nice can depend on acquaintances
Why can't we depend on acquaintances?

It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances
It'd be nice to depend on acquaintances
