Love wears no name tag
While it's walking down the street
Tucked away in vagabonds
Who laugh before they speak

And if I gave my promise
To everyone I meet
I'd have to be the lonliest sad person
You'd ever seen

Love bears no allegiance
It won't fly or burn a flag
It knows no borders or international waters
And goes wherever it demands

If you get out your map
Then I'll show you where I've been
And anyone along the way
That I took where I went Went, went
Went, ooh ooh ooh

Love knows no manners
Or the in-betweens of cruel and sweet
It'll stop you in those tracks you made
Or it'll knock you off your feet

If I ask you nicely
Before you walk away
If I reserve a place for you
Would you be more inclined to stay?
Stay, stay, stay, stay ee ooohhh ee ooohhh
ooooooooohhh
