Put your life into their hands
Die for someone else
Now you're in the real world
Where pain and death are felt

The first blood she'd does not seem real
Reality is what you feel
Dropping to your knees you pray
God won't make this go away

You will not return alive - Left to die
Suffering until the end - Left to die

Time stands still as you pass away
No more tomorrow this is you last day
On this fucking earth

Bodies fall onto the ground
Blood flies through the air
Shredded victims lie in pain
Death is never fair

Legs blown off, all hope is lost
A human life is what it cost
Others follow close behind
A real adventure they will find

Suffering until the end - Left to die
