how did we end up this way i didn't even hear you say goodnight when we went to bed last night you used to hold me 'til i slept feeling your soft warm breath now i miss the way we were if we're not even talking how can we go on

(ref)you're so close but yet so far i see something in your eyes all the secrets you are trying to hide now we're falling from a star we've come a long long way it's not a time to say goodbye give it one more try

i miss your smile when i get home all the little things you did they still mean so much to me you tell me that you just grow tired that you just got bored but do you even love me anymore trying hard to reach you but you won't let me in

(ref)you're so close but yet so far

we've come a long long way

did i ever try to hurt you treat you bad, i didn't mean to i would never do a thing to put you down can we get back to were we started baby show me there's a way you're so close so far away

(ref)you're so close but yet so far

we've come a long long way
give it one more try
