A little bit of soap will wash away your lipstick on my face

But a little bit of soap will never never never ever erase

The pain in my heart and my eyes
as I go through the lonely years

A little bit of soap will never wash away my tears

a little bit of soap will wash away your powder from my chin

A little bit of soap will never never never ever begin

To take away the hurt that I feel
as I go through the lonely years

A little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears,

Have you heard when love begins to die it leaves someone to cry night and Day?

Like a bird, you left your robin's nest and-a just like all the rest you flew away

a little bit of soap
will take away your perfume eventually

But a little bit of soap will never wash away the memory

Of your name in the night

that I call through the lonely years

A little bit of soap
will never wash away my tears

I'll never lose the memory of your name in the night
that I call through the lonely years

A little bit of soap will never wash away my tears

a little bit of soap-a will never wash away my tears
