We sing to You, oh God for You are good
Your love for us will always carry on
Your faithfulness is brighter than the dawn
The whole universe is echoing Your song

Hear it rise

Your anthem we sing out, You are holy, You are holy Before You we bow down You are worthy
You are worthy, oh God

Every tribe and tongue will fall down on their knees
To You, oh God the one and only King
All creation cries that Your glory be made known
One day every heart will know You are God alone

Her it rise, our hearts they cry
Your anthem song, it goes on and on and on
