Well the times sure been rough these days
I think I lack the ability to stand
I'm walkin' them city blocks
And the beggar's got more in his hand

That's all I've gotta say about that

Love stories and the picture shows
Are a lot like drinkin' alone
They ain't the greatest or the smartest things
But right now they just feel good at the time

And those songs on the radio
Start to make way too much sense
And I'd sing along but I can't remember the end of that one famous line
So excuse me if I sing la la la...
