A breach in incorporeality
An entrance to intensity
A passage to a strage immensity
Admission to intricacy

Intricacy

Life brought you in its galleries
And put you through all its mysteries

The galleries live, they have a soul
The galleries rule, they're in control

Another trap, you need another start
You've lost the map, now will you loose you heart
Endangered in the alleys of a mind
You strongly hankered exit you must find

The labyrinth debilitates
You better take care of your brain
The labyrinth adjudicates
Decides the way you'll go insane

Obscure mindways

Halls of craziness
Obscure mindways
It's time to rack your brains
Obscure mindways
Corridors of madness
Obscure mindways
How will you go insane?

Becoming flustered in disorientation
The maze obstetriciates your every torment

Every junction is subjected to dilemma
Each way leads to a different unknown
You may run towards a safer area
You may run towards a danger zone

Journey through arteries of complexity

Your at deadlock, lost and disconcerted
Journey through frightening insecurity
Trapped in fear, is freedom disconnected?

Where is freedom?
