Donâ€™t want to be the troublesome man
I only need to let you know my state of mind Instants I believed unforgettable were thrown into my face
And without sense give me the impression you donâ€™t exist anymore

I wet clouds and soil the ground
Sad and bored in the crowd
In a cage had to run
Me and you for all this time
Rain that got deep inside
Disappear from eyes

Once connections are created I am lost
She makes me feel so frail
Iâ€™m always thrown away, set aside
Fog in my mind I hated
Waiting for the spurs from everywhere
When will my moment arrive?
Iâ€™m cut in half, should I choose the other side?

Real life is without me
I only need to let you know we lived in a soap bubble
Drowned in my fantasy, wanna find a remedy
Living with the weight of her words, Iâ€™m left behind
