Bitter you
Brush the dirt of your leather shoes
Not that it matters if you really do
Somebody said you look fine
Friends of mine went on bashing just for the crime
Counter-acting just to pass the time
They don't know how to choose
We don't ever do

They'll grow up just for the sake of it
Led you up then down, down the hell with it
Senseless hits right on the spot for the numb

One missed call doesn't mean I'm not there at all
Someone told you to start off small
Got you chasing for kicks
We don't choose
We never better, we're just taught to lose
If we don't ever there ain't much to do
Or who said life isn't hard
Though you've got it all
