She has just touched heaven
But acts as though it's broke
She can't help it
She can't mend it
Alien...Alien...
I stole the colors off her
And changed myself just like her
They don't see me
They don't hear me
Alien...Alien...

How am I ever gonna make them understand
No one ever knows the things I do
I could never live here in my own world
Now I've gotta try and make it through
You will understand the things I do
Show me how to get into your world
Alien...Alien...

How am I ever gonna make them understand
No one ever knows the things I do
I could never live here in my own world
Now I've gotta try and make it through
You will understand the things I do
Show me how to get into your world

I'm calling out for you now
I'm calling out to your world
I'm calling out for you now
I'm calling out to your world

Alien come out for me now
Call my name and I can leave this place
Alien come out
Alien come out
