I kept walking through the static sound
9 gates appeared and beckoned me to come
Wish I knew where you are
I'm bipolar, yeah I've come to accept it
So many times that I have changed my being Cure me through love, my dear
Let me fly away from here
Behind which gate do you hide?
I know you're real the way we call each other
Sending secret spiral codes to one another...
