It's getting dark out
I am feeling alone
Just minutes right you've gone
You have left me unsettled
You have stolen my calm
All that I need is balm.

I feel I'm in spirit to pick my guitar
I'm strumming some notes then that's alright so far
And I'm humming a song just straight from my heart
I know I am near that it takes me apart
It's for you! It's for you! For you! For you!

I can't believe all the things that happened (oh, I need you)
All the words that I've said in vain and (come back to me)
tears falling down (I'll show you all of my love) like rain
My soul is black there's no light to follow (oh I need
you)
Deep within me it feels so hollow (what's going wrong)
Can't touch the sense (I'll never leave you alone) of all

I feel I'm in spirit to pick my guitar
I'm strumming some notes then that's alright so far
And I'm humming a song just straight from my heart
I know I am near that it takes me apart
It's for you! It's for you! For you! For you!

(instrumental)

I feel I'm in spirit to pick my guitar
I'm strumming some notes then that's alright so far
And I'm humming a song just straight from my heart
I know I am near that it takes me apart
It's for you! It's for you! For you! For you!
