it breaks, time after time, your heart in two it breaks, time after time, you're crying out he doesn't care about you, whereas, I do he doesn't care about you as I do

I would never treat you as he does behave that way, I'd never, towards you you don't care what I would or would not do

he doesn't love you
I'm the one who loves you
you don't love me
he's the one you love
he's the one you love

those we love don't always love us back you and I, the two of us, know that you can have the one that you don't want

you don't love me
he's the one you love
