We all need to feel safe
then that's taken away sometimes I want to return return to before
the trouble began
that time of no fear

By showing you I'm sensitive
you do risk
being crucified
crucified by those you are unlike

My feelings are hurt so easily that is the price that I pay
the price that I do pay
to appreciate
the beauty they're killing
the beauty they're busy killing

If the sun going down
can make me cry
why should I
why should I
why should I not like the way i am?

My feelings are hurt so easily
that is the price that I pay
killing
killing
killing
