There is no more time left, what is your side,
Will you live like traitor, or fight with the pride.
Let's finish this, talks will get us nowhere,
Time to line up in your last fucking warfare.

I don't need to depend on anyone,
Who the fuck they think they are?
Dropping a bomb on somebody who's in their way,
Making fake earthquake, what more can I say?
They say, they don't know who's killing the planet,
And their holding loaded gun, with their fingerprints at it.
When will people learn, when will they stop suffer,
Time to digg them grave with our shovel.

They've gone to far, time to put an end to it,
No excuse, time for them to see our bullet.
God is watching every single step of them,
But still we are burning in hell with rest of them.

So many bulshits people had to live,
Who knows maybe we are all radioactive.
But that is not our biggest problem, we are on their track,
Problem is that our alies are gonna put knife in our back.
The war is around us, all they long they are planing to
brake us,
To brake the whole world so they can bee numer one.
But all we are doing is siting on our ass and leting them
pass,
First day of world there was a heaven, after them there won't be grass.

They've gone to far, time to put an end to it,
No excuse, time for them to see our bullet.
God is watching every single step of them,
But still we are burning in hell with rest of them.

There is no more time left, what is your side,
Will you live like traitor, or fight with the pride.

Letâ€™s finish this,talks will get us nowhere,
Time to line up in your last fucking warfare.

Theyâ€™ve gone to far,time to put an end to it,
No excuse,time for them to see our bullet.
God is watching every single step of them,
But still we are burning in hell with rest of them.
