Winter, no leaves on the trees
Sky is turning red
Silence, I don't know how it feels
Deep inside my head
So scared to walk that moonlit mile
I can't stand to lose my face

So tired, I have to rest for a while
And get out of these wicked ways

Life will kill you!
Life will kill you!

One step, I'm close to the edge
I can't move no more

In my life, there's a lot of things I regret
That I can't take back for sure
My confidence is leaving me
The evidence is clear to see
It's nobody fault but mine
Life will kill you, anytime
Life will kill you, any minute

Winter, no leaves on the trees
I can't move no more

Life will kill you, anytime
Life will kill you, any minute!
