See the children playing in the evening sun
See them riding kites across the sky
Take them gently in, into the new design
See if the magic will prevail.

If you listen close now you can hear a stream
Running from a sacred place within
Calling gently without promise but a dream
To let the flood of love begin

Now this moment all the pieces find it's home
Strung high but touch gently
We can figure out the steps that need to be
To get home -
See clearly the one future-
Sincerely depend on you...

Any way you like it, any way you hope

Any of the details of your dream
You can make it happen as you realize
The gates of Eden lies within

Everybody loves your every try to care
Dive into the multicolour scene
You can stop the nursing of the 7 sins
And give the wheel of love a spin

Now this moment all the pieces find it's home
Strung high but touch gently
We can figure out the steps that need to be
To get home -
See clearly the one future-
Sincerely depend on you...
We all depend on you
I am You and you are Me
