Please don't leave me now with all this pain
Cause you're hurting me again and again
I close my eyes and dream away
Here in my heart there's an empty space
Where you used to be Well I can't forget the day that you left me
When you walked out the door out of my life
Maybe I need a little love
For you it's just a game
You play...
Cause you...
For once you promised me but then you lied
You say...
You'll never ever leave and let love die
Come back (come back)
For all the love I've found in you
And made my lonely dreams come true
Say you'll stay but you go away
Baby, why did you let me know
But I'll watch where you go
Believing you'll someday come back to me... come back to me
