If I sing but don't have love
I waste my breath with every song
I bring an empty voice, a hollow noise.
If I speak with a silver tongue
convince a crowd but don't have love
I leave a bitter taste with every word I say.

[Chorus]

So let my life be the proof
the proof of your love.
Let my love look like you
and what you're made of.
How you lived, how you died.
Love is sacrifice.

So let my life be the proof,
the proof of your love.
If I give to a needy soul
but don't have love
then who is poor?
It seems all the poverty
is found in me.

[Chorus]

When it's all said and done,
When we sing our final song,
Only love remains.
Only love remains.

[Monologue]

If I speak with human eloquence and angelic ecstasy
but don't love I'm nothing but the creaking of a rusty gate. If I speak God's word with power, revealing all of His mysteries and making everything as plain as day,
and if I have faith to say to a mountain jump and it jumps but I don't love I'm nothing. If I give all I earn to the poor or even go to the stake to be burned as a martyr, but I don't love I've gotten nowhere. So, no matter what I say, no matter what I believe, no matter what I do, I'm bankrupt without love.

[Chorus]
