Your roots so deep
they're deep dug under this ground
your roots so deep
you cant pull them out

Chorus
you tossin and you turnin so keep your fire burnin the children must be learnin we spread this music so round

you got me trippin got me flippin got me wondering about these days got me wondering about this world and why all the rage rasta trapped in babylon while all these wars are goin on you got the children wondering what's goin wrong?
what has gone wrong?
it seems your fire's all gone what is going wrong?

so light your fire bright and put it right up in the sky let them see all of them lies it seems they've turned the page and ripped it out and burned it up and all this world, has gone corrupt but i will blaze this light down-up in the sky let the rasta know you got to wave it up high no more is this fire no more is this flame i've seen ya burned it up yes it up along the way
