From the look on your face, and the chains about your neck,
I'm willing to bet you're a prized possession.

Just give it up.
Just give it your all.
Just give it up.
[x2]

This is not the way you were meant to be.
This is not a moment of clarity.
This is not the way you were meant to be.
This is not a moment of clarity.

My heart is willing to change.
You're mine.

Your words are taking over mine.
Your words are taking over mine.
They're taking over every feeling I have,
It's all for you.

Give me your hand now!
This is exactly what it means, to promise.
I'll teach you to breathe.

Raise your hands to the sky, if you feel alive.
Raise your hands to the sky, if you feel alive.

Raise your hands to the sky, if you feel alive.
Raise your hands to the sky, if you feel alive
