It's a sad, sad, sad, sad
Sad, sad, sorry situation
And things will never be the same

Sad, sad, sad, sad
Sad, sad, sorry situation
And things will never be the same

I didn't think
It would get this out of hand
Now you see me as someone else
I fucked up, fucked up real bad

You say its no big deal
Why do you lie.....
Why do you lie.....
Why do you lie.....

Things will never be the same
Regardless how hard I try
Is it any wonder who's to blame
Yes the blame is all mine

You sad it was not that bad
Then why do I hurt
I hurt so bad.....
I hurt so bad.....
I hurt so bad.....

You say its no big deal
Why do you lie.....
Why do you lie.....
Why do you lie.....

Your compassion is for someone else
You say I'm old enough to not need yours
Then go on you heartless bitch
With all the other whores
