You know that I love you right
You know I mean every word
You know that I suffer right
But you don't care

Tell me that you understand
And you don't care
Tell me that you understand
And you don't care
Tell me that you understand
And you don't care

Tell me that you understand
Tell me that you understand

You know that I love you
You know I mean every word
You know that I suffer
Behind every word

Tell me that you understand
And you don't care
Tell me that you understand
And you don't care
Tell me that you understand
And you don't care

Would we even stood a chance
But your unfair
Too long I've held this glance
To my despair

Don't you find you logic bare
What if I were the girl and you the boy
How would judge yourself

Tell me that you understand
And you don't care
Just tell me that you understand
And you've never cared
