That's what she said to me
That's what she said to me
That's what she said to me

Get it through you sick head
I don't care if you were dead
Your life means nothing to me

I don't know why you care
Were you ever really there
Never seemed that way to me

Now we can't go back
After revealing your fact
And all your desperation
I've seen

Take a note
In your sick head
We would never be
You'd change your mind
Eventually

Take in my words
Think carefully
Your better off
Probably

Then I said
Then I said
Then I said

When I said I don't want to
Be your part time friend
I needed to be
Your full time everything

Don't you care
Was it all an act
For me to give you
what you wanted

How can you stand
To be that way
I can only imagine
What has happened to you

No can you believe it
No the last and only true
No thing she said to me
No that's what she said to me
