(Denial) is a way of living these days
(Meanwhile) reality is unforgiving in so many ways
(It's up to you) to be the master of your fate
(Cause it's true), he who sets the agenda, controls the outcome of the Debate

(This will never be enough)
It'll never be
(This will never be enough)
It's time to get up off our knees
(Seems we all settled for less)
We're all together in this mess
The road is long, the ride is rough
But this will never be enough
(Time to fight or disappear)
Cause change is drawing near

(Breathe) the air while it's still free
(Let's leave) behind these days of uncertainty
(Aim high), push to see our times renew (Say goodbye) to the days where many suffer for a chosen few

(This will never be enough)
It'll never be
(This will never be enough)
It's time to get up off our knees
(Seems we all settled for less)
We're all together in this mess
The road is long, the ride is rough
But this will never be enough
(Time to fight or disappear)
Cause change is drawing near

(Ooooh) Just smile
(Ooooh) The line still moves along
(Ooooh) Live in denial
(Ooooh) For me those days are gone
