I won't live up to any expectations
What you see is what you get
And worse yet I can't give an explanation
For why it's gray on your side
But from me the sun can't hide

Somehow in the city it's summer in the city
Somewhere in the city it's summer in the city

I will rise up to every day's occasion
What you reach is what you get
And better yet I'll give you an indication
For why you're feeling deprived
But with me you come alive

Somehow in the city it's summer in the city
Somewhere in the city it's summer in the city

No more raining on this lonely town
Summer comes around when you really want it
Immortalized, young forever now
There's more to life than running in the circles you become
No more raining on this lonely town
Summer comes around when you really want it
Immortalized, young forever now
C'mon and spend the summer with me

We won't give into any hesitation
What you need is what you get
We'll never let lack of an imagination
Keep us locked up inside
Even when the sun has died

Somehow in the city it's summer in the city
Somewhere in the city it's summer in the city

No more raining on this lonely town
Summer comes around when you really want it
Immortalized, young forever now
There's more to life than running in the circles you
become

No more raining on this lonely town
Summer comes around when you really want it
Immortalized, young forever now
C'mon and spend the summer with me
