Wish at last came true, are you happy?
Every thing's checked out, are you sure?
Leave the status quo, do you think so?

The ears that do not hear
They fall for the tunes again and again and again

Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your lip

I would rather sleep in a minefield
I would rather breathe on Mars
For minds that do not think
They fall for the lies again and again and again

Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your

Y'all must see me laughing
Laughing in your face
Y'all must see me laughing
I cannot, I cannot, I can't

Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your lip
Baby, bite your lip
