Sad night, where is the morning mind?
When will you come? When will you shine?
To my darken soul, where there's no light to grow
anything good, anything you would seem.
Sad night, why don't you speak to me?
What would you say?
What would you think?
Of my thoughts today or how they want to strength
Far away to you, far away to you.

Take a long time to know.
Took a long time to grow
Take a long time to go.
Took a long time to grow
Take a long time to know.
Took a long time to grow
Let it go.
Sad night, where is the morning mind?
When will you come? When will you shine?
To my darken soul, where there's no light to grow
anything good, anything you would seem.
