First Verse:

this is just another story, from another girl tryna hold this love down and juggle with the world problems in my palms, revolving everyday resolution was stay on the same pace but you can't never judge me, you can never judge life you can make plans but tomorrow aint a said light you can live in the dark, you can see hail you can try yo hardest at everything and still fail theres no place in bible that it says that you were ment to see the day that said next tomorrow, or after day after ...it never said i was in the chapter july 4th, they call it independence day but in history that really aint a holiday aint the truth of independance and life is still hard say we free but i'm still prayin real hard cause.. I

Chorus:

...I just need a miracle
i'll explode; show out for columbia and the east coast
i'm young but that just means i'll develop in the years to come
...I just need a miracle
gon' doubt me.. you don't need me if you livin' life with out me
ahh.. I just need a miracle.

Second Verse:

I'm 17 but it feels like a midlife crises livin' in a world where half the people biasts walkin' down the street and people stop me askin me to try it smoke a joint or askin me for money to buy it we diferent. it aint the same life style speak about the truth they askin' me to pipe down but i can't turn down my emotion to this life now i might not get another chance to write this shit down life is so fast you can never grab it time ticks even when it's somethin tragic can't mourin' cause my clock still goes off alarm rings and i hit just to doze off but i gotta wake up, reality. for my family i'll make you all proud of me hate who i've became and to the ones that doubted em cross yo fingers that i never make a better salary. cause

Chorus:

i'll explode; show out for columbia and the east coast
i'm young but that just means i'll develop in the years
to come
gon' doubt me.. you don't need me if you livin' life with
out me
ahh.. I just need a miracle.

Third Verse:

everythings good i feel like i'm welfare one minute i'm makin' money, the next it isn't there spend it on this things to change apperance everywhere
I go, cause if i don't people will stare and note that my swag aint official cause i don't wear polo gucci, coogie louey vutton .. cause i'm solo i aint manage so everything is out the pocket i wear aero, from the stores no mail or boxes budget low, no car.. share it with my pops sista goin' off and my other one is finna pop a baby out and i'm goin in my senior year i just wish that i knew i wouldn't see the tears but, my baby gone. we havin' hard times and it sucks
cause
when it hurts like avant said you don't give it up you work hard, if you love me better suck it up if you hate me just relax and gon' and grab a cup get comfortable, watch how life plays rolls plays games and i'll always be the main show you'll hate me forreal when i get big prove you wrong when you gettin' dissed by tha kid freshie lame but nigga i'm just walkin' pain everytime i see a sunny day it always rains plans dead and i'm livin' in a range for the people hatin' this is what they say will make a change.

Chorus:

i'll explode; show out for columbia and the east coast
i'm young but that just means i'll develop in the years
to come
...I just need a miracle
gon' doubt.. you don't need me if you livin' life with out me
ahh.. I just need a miracle.
(repeat)
