Verse 1.

You took a second ,and a Gat
To your head
Does anybody care? Has anyone said?
The tears run dry but the blood still flows
In the hearts and minds of those who've been broken.

Does anybody care out there?
Does anybody care?

Chorus:

Light up the way now,
There's always hope ,
always a way outside .
Light up the way now
Everyone needs a Hero .
Everyone needs a sign.

Verse 2

You wander hopelessly lost in your fear,
Your worst enemy
is here, and she's spoken.
And could you care enough to step out ?
Lend a hand .
Offer hope.
Offer something.

Does anybody care out there?
Does anybody care?

Chorus:

Chorus.
Someone to survive.
