1 Save your ticket to the one man show.
The eyes of The crowd are closing in.
Take your seat and don't let go.
The ride goes round and back again.

2 The blinds are drawn and the room is cold
The noise outside a distant hymn
The strangest home youve ever known
The darkest place you've ever been

Chorus:
Come out out of the darkness well find you
Leave all of the sadness/madness/badness behind you
Come out of the darkness well find you

3 The nights are longer
As the shadows speak
The winter days are wearing thin
Choose your time for the truth you seek
It's the long goodbye of a forgotten king.

4 She's Strange as fiction
Works to rule
It Takes some time
To feel the sting
The purest thought youve ever known
The sweetest song you'll ever sing.
