Up through all the streets you go
But little girl don't find her name
We're all gone down roads to homes
Where everybody finds their game

Just behind the street she goes
Where she'll be found behind her wheel
'Cos it's the only place she knows
That makes her know just how she feels

'Cos you're the biggest thing that I see
You've got me where you want me
You hunt me down, you haunt me
And beg me to believe

All too fast to where she goes
But who'll be first to find her name
And holding on in Hollywood
With holding on don't make the grade

Just about when it's alright
There's you and I we'll find our way
But it's holidays not Hollywood
And holidays don't suit my game

'Cos you're the biggest thing that I see
You've got me where you want me
You hunt me down and haunt me
And beg me to believe

Hollow days and hollow nights
But everyone they find their way
It highlights you when things ain't right
And makes you want to find your place

'Cos you're the biggest thing that I see
You've got me where you want me
You hunt me down, you haunt me
And beg me to believe

You're the biggest thing that I see
You've got me where you want me

You hunt me down, you haunt me
And beg me to believe
