Shirley was a lady
Whose teeth were made of gold
She danced before the music
And everything it told

Huckleberry Grove
Where the music plays into tomorrow night
Huckleberry Grove
Only fools would need to argue or fight

Shirley had eight children
And each of them was told
You've got joy for singing
Burning in your soul

Huckleberry Grove
Where the idiots can't ease you of your mind
Huckleberry Grove
There's a free train, leave your luggage far behind

Ooh she sings shangri-la
Ooh she sings shangri-la

Shirley was a lady
Who mostly stayed at home
But she went out dancing
Down Huckleberry Grove

Huckleberry Grove
-where the music's guaranteed to blow your mind
Huckleberry Grove
-you'll be groovin' on the best days of your life
Huckleberry Grove
-where the idiots can't ease you of your mind
Huckleberry Grove
-get the free train, leave your luggage get behind

Ooh she sings Shangri-la
