

Ocean Colour Scene "July"

Visit "July" on MotoLyrics.com

It's warm outside
But I can hear the snow
Falling on my window
I had to go away
To somewhere deeper down

I know it's my mistake
To take off out of this town
And June becomes July

This road's on fire
And my trains running slow
It rains against my window
I had to get away
To somewhere no-one knows

I know it's my mistake
To take off now in this way
And June becomes July

The air is thin
When you're above the clouds
I see them from my window
It's strange to get away now
To somewhere no-one goes

I know it's my mistake
But I don't even know now
And June becomes July
