I want to know how it feels to be
Alone as it appears to me
As the start of the day is the end of the night
So the end of the night is the start of the day

I know that it's true because everybody knew
Before me, so where can I go now?

If the start of the day is the end of the night
The end of the night is the start of the day
And once it has gone it will never come back again

Well, we know where we are
And we know that we've come so far
And we'll never come back again

Now I know that it's true 'cause everybody knew
Before me, so where can I go now?

You take me back to the start
(Back to the start)
Where I was falling apart
(Falling apart)
Now all the things you want to be
You never want to be with me

If the start of the day is the end of the night
The end of the night is the start of the day
And once it has gone it will never come back again

Well, we know where we are
And we know that we've come so far
And we'll never come back again

You said you knew everything
You said you knew everything
About love and peace and hate and lies
About love and peace and hate and lies

Well, if the start of the day is the end of the night
The end of the night is the start of the day
And once it has gone it will never come back again

Well, we know where we are
And we know that we've come so far
And we'll never come back again
We'll never come back again

If the start of the day is the end of the night
The end of the night is the start of the day
(We'll never come back again)
And once it has gone it will never come back again

(We'll never come back again)
If the start of the day is the end of the night
The end of the night is the start of the day
Once it has gone it will never come back again
Once it has gone it will never come back again
Once it has gone it will never come back again
