I get this understanding
It's like a living breath
And it grooves with the times
And it swings with the tune
And it flows until the end of rest

I get this understanding
It knocks at every door
And it keeps you awake
With a sweet elevate
And it keeps you running back for more

I get this understanding
On a night like tonight
And I'm driving and driving
And never arriving
But the way I'm singing oh so right

I get this understanding
When a fish when it's fried
And it's you coming home
And I'm being on my own
And we're shaking off the world outside

I get this understanding
It happens every day
When the truth or the blues
Is a ??? through my doors
And I save it for a better day

I get this understanding
When the music swings low
And I'm there on the floor
And I'm waiting for more
And I never never want to go home
