I'm heading out tonight just thinking
Don't leave your sweet lies on the floor
It doesn't matter what you say I'm leaving
We got summer straight ahead I'm gone

As we fall to pieces
The secrets in your heart
The shadows in the dark are caged

And heaven made a mess of us
I'm leaving my bad luck blues eyes
And heaven made a mess of me
She's living with regret
She's underneath my breath all day

She's coming back tonight I'm sinking
It's been forty days without a sound
Every summer night she caught me dreaming
And every summer day she let me down

As we fall to pieces
The secrets in your heart
The shadows in the dark are caged

And heaven made a mess of us
I'm leaving my bad luck blues eyes
And heaven made a mess of me
She's living with regret
She's underneath my breath all day

Just let her go away
Just let her go
Just let her go away
