Sleep inside this house of steel
Clapping, fly by, spinning wheel
Said I wear that inside out
Been so long since I've been found.

They got turns to feeling cheer
Cash, no time, I'll never quit
Still we ride this running ship
Run this ship cause we can breathe.

We changed those raising the white god
They braced and then we got through
Shot, showing God on the brinks of divine art
So fun are you

Isolation, isolation
Heal the sickness of isolation
Fight your minds in simulation
Project yourself in isolation

We changed those raising the white god
They braced and then we got through
Shot, showing God on the brinks of divine art
So fun are you
