Waiting for a sign
I swear I'll win this time
And you
And you will love me again
You will want me now
You will play out like inside my dreams
It's you I seem to see (to see)
Your love lies with me (with me)

Hold your head high (head high)
Hold you self high (self high)

Time is ticking onwards
I can't stop the clock
Since so and so
You're losing all you found
And as the days go
As the nights go on without me
Like I've always known
Your love lies with me

Hold your head high (head high)
Hold you self high (self high)
Hold your head high (head high)
Hold you self high (self high)

And around you
There's a reason
Cuz I need to feel you
More than anything
More than anything
More than anything
Cuz you're all I'm waiting for (waiting for)

Hold your head high (head high)
