If we give up now,
While we still have time,
It wont be too late,
If you save tonight.

This heart stay a float,
When you don't know where lies ahead,
I know that you are scared,
As you take another breath.

Will be can shine's a light,
Can ilumine the skies,
And the stars began a storm,
As we try to save tonight.

Hold my hand,
For one last time,
I will lift you up,
Put your hand up high,
If we give up now,
While we still have time,
It wont be too late,
If you save tonight.

It's hard to make it start,
When you don't know where you been,
I know that you are scared,
Cause your heart beats inside your chest.

Will be can shine's a light,
Can ilumine the sky,
The stars will guide us home,
If we try to save tonight.

Hold my hand,
For one last time,

I will lift you up,
Put your hand up high,
If we give up now,
While we still have time,
It wont be too late,
If you save tonight.

If we give up now,
While we still have time,
It wont be too late,
If you save tonight.

Rain it's beating down,
It's drawing lines,
Across your face,
There's a chance,
To talk things right,
A future lies,
Beyond this place,
That we can through,
If we believe in booth of us,
And we can change,
A please don't stay,
It's not enough if we had love,
We find new way.

Hold my hand,
For one last time,
I will lift you up,
Put your hand up high,
If we give up now,
While we still have time
It wont be too late,
If you save tonight...
