

Oceans Of Sadness "Accepting Our Weakness"

So go on! You win, all the games that we've been in
Kill all the laughter, kill all the joy
Bring on the madness so that we can Clear us from sin, all the guilt we feel within
Kill all the laughter, kill all the joy
Bring on the sadness so that I can cry...

And peel off your skin! All the layers 'round your sin
Kill all the laughter, kill all the joy
Show me the truth behind your walls of

Wisdom and skills, show the castle you live in
Kill all the laughter, kill all the joy
Tear all the walls down so that I can try...

We are all we'll ever be, no one will rejoin
Time is running out like me
I will not live on...

We are all we'll ever be
Untill we will grow our wings and fly ...

WHEN IS THE FEAST OF MY LIFE?
