It's taken me a little while to bounce back
I've been falling from some thing good
People say I took a little too long
Oh I did, yeah
Oh baby oh

Till you came a long and you saved me,
You saved me, with that good love
You came a long and you saved me,
You saved me, oh, with that good love

It's taken me a little while to come back
I've been working on some thing good
Oh, so every now and then I tend to fall back
Oh lord, I've been misunderstood

Till you came along and you saved me
You saved me with that good love
Oh yeah yeah
You came around and you saved me
You saved me, oh, with that good love

Oh yeah, yeah

You've got it all baby
I'm so addicted
I, I can't help but want it more and more and more

You've got it all baby
I'm so addicted
I, I can't help but want it more and more and more

You saved me, oh

Till you came along and you saved me
You saved me, with that good love

You came a long and you saved me
You saved me, oh, with that good love
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Till you came along and you saved me

You saved me with that good love

Ohh you came along and you saved me
You saved me, oh, with that good love

You came a long
You saved me
You saved me
