They give everything they've got
Crawled though blades taking every shot
But what's it worth as time ticks on?

Falling flat on their hands and knees
Playing beggars, who cannot read?
Another lie to the hopeless and weak

I'll be what you need
When all else fails

Take one last look at me
Before you write me off
Will you draw before your found?
Will you sign before your drowned?

Under terms you could agree
Sign off the subjects, hand me the key
It's all over! All over for him
I'll be what you need
When all else fails

For all we are fighting for
We have come to respect this more

I'll be what you need
When all else fails
I'll be what you need
When all else fails

Whatever it is we are fighting for
We've got to learn to respect this!
Whatever it is we are fighting for
We've got to learn!
