You say we never should've been but I disagree
So like an apple that I simply think differently
And nah, I'm not looking for your sympathy
But, (You've got my heart I know)
Uh, I know last time we might've failed dismally
We both did some shit shady as the industry
But when we lock eyes I know you feel it instantly,
Despite all the history
You still got a thing for me

I told you how long we got
All the time in the in world
I've got a thing for you
You've got a thing for me
I've got my mind made up
You've got my heart you know
You got a thing for me
You got a thing for me

Recently I've seen my daydreams differently
Every time I space out in class I see the imagery
If we were not together starts fucking with me visably
Damn, that's what the fuck I get for thinking wishfully
And lately, I've been looking for some quick relief
Liberally, accepting that my cousin's spouse is Hillary
But inside this is all causing misery
Why I ain't got you right now is a mystery

I told you how long we got
All the time in the world
I got a thing for you
You've got a thing for me
I've got my mind made up
You got my heart you know
You've got a thing for me
You've got a thing for me

So, tell me, are you missing me
Or am I absent like a Jewish family's Christmas tree
Uh, that new dude is a phony and he isn't me
And I bet you he don't satisfy you physically

But when we sex we experience a symphony
Hocking at your body and I beat like a timphony
For you baby I would walk across Tennessee
But my chances are tinier than Timothy
Then I'd never get to keep you we weren't meant to be
We're in a different key you just wanted Middle C
I miss your life I miss you kissin me
We've broken and got together two times call it a trucie

I told you how long we got
All the time in the world
I've got a thing for you
You've got a thing for me
I've got my mind made up
You've got my heart you know
You've got a thing for me
You've got a thing for me
