Ephemeral, we're ashes on a breeze
Penny for your thoughts
Dolour for your dreams
And who are you?
I have seen
Particles arrange
All in line
In every shape
Of the word
And all that we become
You're not the only one
Suffer sister, someday you'll be free
Penny for my fears
Dollar for your screams
And who are you?
I have seen
Particles arrange
All in line
In every shape
Of the the Word
And all that we become
You're not the only one
