What's it gonna take
to take you away from me?
What do I have to do to finally get rid of you?

It's not last call we're not stumbling out the door, anymore.

Go, take your lies and your promises
Go, take your secrets I don't want to know
See what it's like to wake up alone
Why don't you go?

Don't forget to write
You can write me out of this
Don't believe your friends
They believe everything you pretend

It's not 3am lying on your bedroom floor anymore.
Go, take your lies and your promises
Go, take your secrets I don't want to know
See what it's like to wake up alone
Why don't you go?

So just let it go now
I don't want to know now
I just want you gone for good
So just let me go now
I want you to know now
I want you to go

Go, take your lies and your promises
Go, take your secrets I don't want to know
See what it's like to wake up alone
Why don't you go?
